The James Duane Award, named for the first judge to sit in the District of New York, is bestowed upon a person who has rendered exemplary service to the Southern District of New York. Former judges, attorneys, government officials, and other community leaders may be recipients of the award. The award was inaugurated during the Court’s 225th Anniversary year.

The recipient is chosen by a committee chaired by a former Chief Judge of the Mother Court with representatives of the Bench and Bar. The award is presented in the spring at a dinner hosted by the Court in honor of the Bench and Bar. Invitations are extended to members of the Bar of the Mother Court.
